

Paid Sick and Safe Time Ordinance

Seattle's Paid Sick and Safe Time Ordinance (PSST) requires employers to provide paid sick and safe time for employees. PSST can be used for an employee's absence from work due to illness, medical appointments, or a critical safety issue.

Employers must provide Paid Sick and Safe Time to Employees

Employees can use accrued PSST:

To care for themselves or a family member for a physical or mental health condition, including a doctor's appointment.

To care for themselves, a family member, or a roommate for reasons related to domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking.

When their family member's school or place of care has been closed.

When their place of business has been closed by order or a public health official for health reasons.

For employers of businesses with 250+ FTEs, when their place of business has been closed for any health or safety related reason.

WHO IS COVERED?

Our ordinances cover employees working inside Seattle city limits, regardless of their immigration status or the location of the employer.

If your situation does not qualify for investigation by us, we will refer you to another agency for help.

RETALIATION

Network companies cannot retaliate (take negative action against) an app-based worker for:

- Asserting their rights under these laws.
- Filing a complaint with OLS or a case in court.
- Telling others about their rights.
- Speaking with companies about rights.

OUR SERVICES

- Investigations of complaints.
